DETAILED ACTION

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1,4-7, 9, 10, 13, 14 and 16 in Paper No. 6 is acknowledged.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 1 and 13 are objected to because of the following informalities: Term "In" in the beginning claim 1 and 13 should be deleted. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1, 4-7, 9, 10, 13, 14 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brinkley, III (3,656,654) in view of Ijima (6,447,709).

Brinkley disclose, in figs. 4-7, a container comprising a drinking straw having two corrugated sections as claimed.

Brinkley does not disclose the corrugated sections each having different portions which are substantially diametrically opposite to one another.

Ijima discloses a flexible tube having corrugated sections each having different portions which are substantially diametrically opposite to one another.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made make the corrugated sections in the Brinkley straw having different portions, as taught by Ijima, in order to facilitate the bending of the straw in desired directions.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Pontbriand et al., Meyer and Schmidt teach flexible tubes having corrugated sections each having different portions which are substantially diametrically opposite to one another.

Wofford, Cornell et al., Dodd, and Buntain teach containers with pop-out drinking straws.
